Throughout construction, the capacity of the entire Gateway Arch facility is limited. EACH guest planning to enter the Gateway Arch is required to have EITHER a Journey to the Top ticket OR an Arch Entry-Only ticket to be allowed access to the facility. A Journey to the Top ticket includes the tram ride to the top as well as the documentary film, Monument to the Dream (based on availability). For guests NOT wanting to ride the tram to the Top of the Arch, the Arch Entry-Only ticket allows access into the Gateway Arch facility and includes admission to the documentary film*.

Please Note: The Museum of Westward Expansion is unavailable during this time. Educational programs and FREE exhibits featuring artifacts from the now-closed Museum of Westward Expansion are available at the Old Courthouse.

The award-winning documentary, Monument to the Dream, is shown continuously throughout the day. Guests inside of the Gateway Arch facility may view the film at no additional charge, based on availability. No reservations are available for the film.*
